

Arts and Heritage Alliance – Milton Keynes (AHA-MK)

- AHA-MK is a voluntary representative forum that works collaboratively to position the Arts and Heritage sector as a strategic contributor to the community of Milton Keynes.
- Its key aims are to represent, develop and promote Arts and Heritage in Milton Keynes.
- It is a subscription organisation and membership is open to all organisations that contribute to the wider strategic development of Arts and Heritage in Milton Keynes.
- AHA-MK members contribute significantly to the economy and social fabric of Milton Keynes, as well as to its arts and heritage ecology.
- For a full list of the 27 current members, please visit: www.aha-mk.org

Lady Scott

Rima is Chair of the Arts & Heritage Alliance – Milton Keynes and a member of the MK Local Strategic Partnership in this role. She is also currently a member of the boards of MK Arts for Health and Wavendon All Music Plan (The Stables).

Founder of Bucks Dance, a dance development organisation, former member of various national charitable boards including National Association for the Care & Resettlement of Offenders, Council for Dance Education and Training (Chair of the Regional Dance Councils committee), Southern Arts Board (Vice Chair) and MK Theatre & Gallery Company (Chair of Theatre Committee). She has been an advisor to Milton Keynes Arts Association and Milton Keynes Community Foundation. Rima was a Magistrate in Milton Keynes for 26 years, as well an advisor at the MK Citizens Advice Bureau for many years, and Chairman of Governors of her local village school for 20 years.

Interests include her 4 children and 12 grandchildren who are scattered over the globe, theatre, tennis, bridge, Pilates and trying to keep fit.